Nature's power in each ingredient.

LIOLAT is a line of powder milk sweet, powder brigadeiro and powder condensed milk, vacuum dehydrated, with a flavor that is true to the traditional product.

Ideal for indulgent makings, without aromatic addings, specially for applications that demand both low humidity and practicality, since the products don't require refrigeration.

The products are obtained through an ingredient homogenization and concentration process, followed by vacuum dehydration, and milling, resulting in stable powders, easily applicable and precisely dosed.

Its powder form can be stored at room temperature, being more convenient and flexible for industrial usage.
